For disabled dependants, please complete an Application for total and permanent disability status of a dependant child form.

To be eligible for benefits coverage, your dependant children may be required to be unmarried, under age 18, or under age 25 if they are a full-time student at a recognized school and dependent on you for financial support. Disabled dependants may be eligible for benefits coverage if they became disabled before the limiting ages above, and are completely dependent on you for financial support. Eligible dependants may vary depending on the benefit plan. Check with your plan sponsor/employer for further information.

4 Waiver of Benefits

If you waive health and/or dental coverage and later lose coverage through another plan, you may apply for benefits under this plan within 31 days. Otherwise you and/or your dependants may be required to provide proof of insurability, and your benefits may be limited or denied under this plan.

If you or your dependants are presently covered for health and/or dental benefits under another benefits plan you may be able to waive coverage for such benefit(s) under this plan.

I waive coverage for myself and my dependants under: Health Dental

5 Plan Member/Employee Beneficiary Information

If you designate a beneficiary who is:
(a) under the age of majority, or
(b) mentally incapacitated

you should also designate a Trustee for that beneficiary. If this situation applies to you or you have concerns about your named beneficiary's legal status, please consult a legal advisor for further details.

*If you are a Quebec resident and you designate your spouse as a beneficiary, you are not permitted to change that beneficiary unless you:

(a) indicate that your designation of beneficiary is revocable, by checking the box on this form, or
(b) your spouse agrees, in writing, to be removed as your beneficiary.

If you are a resident of a province other than Quebec, your beneficiary designation is automatically revocable unless you specifically make it irrevocable. If you make an irrevocable beneficiary designation, you will not be able to alter or change your beneficiary designation in any way without the consent of the beneficiary. If your beneficiary is a minor, you will not be permitted to alter or change your beneficiary designation in any way until your beneficiary reaches the age of majority. You should consider obtaining legal and financial advice from a professional advisor before making any irrevocable beneficiary designation.

Original beneficiary information will be kept by your plan sponsor/employer.

If you have designated your spouse as beneficiary, the designation will be irrevocable, unless you indicate that you wish it to be revocable below.

I wish to make my designation: Revocable Irrevocable

6 Plan Member/Employee Declaration

I consent to the collection, use, and exchange of my personal information by my plan sponsor/employer or the administrator, an insurance company, and/or others who require information to administer my group benefits.

I authorize these parties to obtain and exchange between them, any information about me, my spouse, and my dependant children to determine benefit entitlements, and for record keeping, file identification, reporting, underwriting, procurement of health information, claims adjudication and resolution, program management, and other services provided from time to time.

I confirm that I have obtained consent from my spouse and any dependant children over the age of majority, to share information as it relates to the plan.

In the case of death, I expressly authorize my employer, the policyholder, the beneficiary, heir, or liquidator of my estate to provide the insurance companies, when required by the latter, with all the information and authorizations permitting the assessment of the claim and the collection of evidence.

I hereby apply for group benefits under my plan sponsor's/employer's plan and authorize any required deductions.

I certify that the information given above is true and complete. A photocopy of this authorization is as valid as the original. The original enrolment form will be retained by my plan sponsor/employer.
